@LadyLanePark

Dear parents,

On Monday we started our Anti-Bullying Week by taking part in an assembly where we thought more about bullying and how we can help prevent or tackle this in our lives. Thank you to Miss Borsos for organising the assembly and delivering some very important messages to our pupils. To mark the beginning of Anti-bullying week, we all came to school in odd socks, and thought about how difference should be celebrated. Thank you all for your kind donations to The Anti-bullying Alliance.

Wednesday morning saw the return of the Book Fair to school; Thank you to Mrs Ferguson & Mrs Durkin, who kindly gave up their time to come and run the fair all day. Over £1,066 was spent at the fair and as a result School are able to boost our School Library book collection. On Wednesday afternoon, our U11 Rugby team went with Mr Walker to Giggleswick School where they took part in a training session and match against Hunter Hall School. I know Mr Walker was very impressed with not only the team's performance but the way in which they represented school. Well done to you all.

Throughout the week, our younger children have been busy learning their songs and actions for their Nativity performances which start the week beginning Monday 5th December. In Music & Drama lessons this week, The Juniors have also been working hard on their Nativity Service, held in Bingley Parish Church on Thursday 8th December.

Today, we have raised over £200 for Children in Need by holiday a Pyjama Day in school. Thank you to A'isha and Hakeem, our Heads of School Council and Mrs Moffat for organising such a fun day for an important cause.

Next week our House Chocolate Competition begins and from Monday morning until Friday lunchtime we will be asking for pupils to bring in some chocolate for their house (please remember we are a nut free school!). Labelled containers will be in the main entrance all week, before going to the big 'weigh-in' on Friday afternoon. The house with the heaviest amount of chocolate will have a special desert the following week. All donated chocolate will be given to The Friends for them to use on the Chocolate Tombola at The Christmas fair on Friday 9th December from 3.45pm – 6.15pm.

Have a lovely weekend
